PROPERTY DESCRIPTION

We currently have one female vacancy available in a welcoming Supported Independent Living (SIL) home in Upper Coomera, delivered by a Registered NDIS SIL Provider.

This well-maintained 3 bedroom, 2 bathroom home offers a comfortable and supportive living environment in a quiet residential area.

The home features a bright open-plan kitchen, dining and living area, providing plenty of space for daily routines, shared meals and support activities.

The kitchen includes a large wrap-around bench and practical layout, allowing good workspace for meal preparation and opportunities for participants to engage in cooking and daily living skills with staff support.

The home includes a large bathroom with both a shower and bathtub, as well as a separate toilet with grab rails to support accessibility and safety. A shower chair is available if required, making the bathroom suitable for participants who require some mobility support.

Participants can enjoy a comfortable living area with plenty of natural light and access to the outdoor patio, creating a relaxing space for social activities, visitors, or quiet downtime.

The available bedroom is light, private and fitted with ceiling fans and ducted air-conditioning, ensuring comfort throughout the year.

This home would suit a female participant who enjoys a calm and quiet environment. The current tenant is respectful, independent and keeps to herself, making the household well suited to someone seeking a peaceful home environment.

The home also includes a friendly hypoallergenic cat, so participants should be comfortable around animals.
